Rules and Regulations

1. All highland piping and dancing events (with the exception of All Comers and novelty events as specified) shall be run under the Rules of the Piping and Dancing Association of New Zealand (PDANZ).
2. Bonnets/head dress to be worn in accordance with the rules and regulations of the PDANZ.
3. No entry will be accepted if not accompanied by payment of the specified entry fee/s.
4. In the event of a tie for Most Points in piping or dancing events Rule 13 (PDANZ Bylaws) will apply and aggregate marks may be used.
5. All piping and dancing competitors must be registered for the current year with the PDANZ. Registration cards must be produced upon request. Registrations may be made on the day, prior to competing, with payment of the required subscription fee. The only exceptions are special, All Comers or novelty events which are not run under the rules of the PDANZ and are specified as such in the programme.
6. No judges' reports will be given for highland dancing events.
7. Novice, All Comers and novelty events do not count towards Most Points awards.
8. Dances may be danced three competitors at a time.
9. All challenge cups and trophies must be returned (in a clean and tidy condition) on or before competition day or a $20 penalty will be charged.

2/17/2021. If there are insufficient entries for reel dances, dances in brackets will apply.

11. Piping, dancing and drumming competitors must be dressed in Highland and National Dress for prizegiving presentations.
12. Competitors must report to the relevant official immediately when called and be ready to perform in order of programme or the right to compete in the event may be withdrawn.
13. Drumming competitors must be accompanied by a piper, and take personal responsibility for arranging such.
14. Competitors must use the designated warm-up/tune-up areas provided. Anyone found to be preparing for an event outside of these areas may be asked to relocate.
15. Numbers must be worn in clear view of the adjudicators.
16. Video and non-flash photography will be generally permitted but organisers reserve the right to restrict or prohibit such activity if it is deemed to be intrusive or disruptive to the competitors and/or judges or compromises safety. By entering this competition you grant Te Anau Events and its associates the right to use your name and image (photograph or video) in any media publication, website or associated publication.
17. All competitors must comply with the directions of officials.
18. The Te Anau Tartan Festival committee reserves the right to alter the programme on the day if deemed necessary.
19. In all events, the decision of the judge/s is final and no correspondence shall be entered into.
20. Competitors enter at their own risk and neither the Te Anau Community Events Charitable Trust nor the Te Anau Tartan Festival committee will be responsible for any loss of property, injury or accidents.
21. By entering these competitions you are deemed to have accepted the rules, regulations and personal responsibilities as set out here and agreed to abide by them.

Admission to the venue is by donation. Entry fees (as marked) must accompany entry forms. Piping and Dancing entries will be accepted on the day at $2 extra per event entered. All other events may be entered on the day at the advertised prices. Highland dancing entry fees are inclusive of piper's levy. No telephone entries. No dogs or alcohol permitted on grounds or event premises.
