CONDUCT OF COMPETITIONS

3. No Society or person shall hold, compete in, judge, advertise or otherwise assist in any competition, with the exceptions of those noted in Bylaw 1.1, unless the same has been approved by a Centre of the Association in accordance with Bylaw 4 hereof.

4. Any Society desiring to hold a competition shall make prior written application to the Centre for a permit, and shall submit with its application full particulars of the events, conditions, prizes and entry fees and the names of all judges. These shall be printed on all schedules advertising the Competitions.

Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 9 hereunder the Centre may in its discretion grant or refuse the application or may grant the application subject to amendments in the schedule and shall notify the Society promptly of its decision. In the event of the Centre refusing any application or granting the same subject to an alteration in the schedule it shall give full reasons for its decision and the Society shall have the right to appeal to the Council. Piping schedules are to be approved by the Piping and dancing Association through the Convenor of the PJGC. No permit shall be granted for any championship other than New Zealand, North Island, South Island or Centre.

5. Any Society which is not affiliated with the Association shall pay a fee of $15 (GST inclusive) for each permit granted in respect of a one day schedule and $20 (GST inclusive) for each permit granted for a schedule occupying two days or more, such fees to be collected by the Centre and forwarded to the Secretary of the Council.

6. All competitions shall be conducted strictly in accordance with the schedule approved by the Association and no alteration shall be made therein without the authority of the Centre.

7. If any Society to which a permit has been granted commits any breach of these by-laws the Association may revoke the permit.

8. Every schedule or advertisement of any competitions for which a permit has been granted shall state that the competition is being conducted under the rules of the Association.

9. The Society conducting a competition may make such requirements not inconsistent with these by-laws as it thinks fit regarding the method and time of entering, the fees payable, the information to accompany the entry, the use or wearing of numbers and payment of deposits therefore, and all other matters. All such requirements shall be complied with by competitors.

10. A Society may postpone or abandon any competitions wholly or in part in the event of strikes, floods, or other similar causes rendering such action necessary. If there are insufficient entries in any event the Society may abandon the event or reduce the prize money therefore. Intending competitors shall be given as long notice as possible of any abandonment or postponement, where possible by personal letter. In the case of the abandonment of any competition or event, the entry fees shall be refunded in full.

Where any trophy, special prize or medal is being competed for in any event the judge shall reach an outright decision, which shall determine the result of the event for all purposes. If the judge alters a mark or place, such alteration must be clearly initialled on the marking sheet handed to the steward before the judge leaves the seat. The judge's decision shall be announced in the presence of the judge as soon as practicable after the conclusion of each event, and subject to any correction then made by the

In the event of a tie for any placing the above points shall be shared in the same manner as applies to prize money. If the total points of two or more competitors shall be equal, the competitor who has gained the most first placings shall be awarded the most points prize, and if two or more are still equal then the competitor with the most second prizes, and so on. If two or more competitors are still equal then the Society may use the aggregate marks, if the intention to use aggregate marks in this way is clearly stated in the Society's schedule. The conditions under which other special prizes are awarded shall be clearly stated in the schedule.
